

THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD GOD
AND SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST AT GREAT VESPERS

On “Lord I have cried ...,” 10 Stichera from the Pentecostarion, in Tone VI:

Verse: Bring my soul out of prison * that I may confess Thy name.

The Lord was taken up into the Heavens * that He might send the Comforter unto the world. * The Heavens made ready His throne, and the clouds His Ascension. * The Angels marvel as they see a man more exalted than they. * The Father receiveth Him Whom He had with Him eternally in His bosom. * The Holy Spirit commandeth all His Angels: * Lift up your gates, O ye princes. * All ye nations, clap your hands; ** Christ hath ascended whither He was before.

Verse: The righteous shall wait patiently for me * until Thou shalt reward me.

Repeat: The Lord was taken up into the Heavens ...,

Verse: Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord; * O Lord, hear my voice.

O Lord, the Cherubim were amazed at Thine Ascension, * when they beheld Thee, O God, * Who sittest on them, * ascending upon the clouds. * And we glorify Thee, for Thy mercy is good. ** Glory be to Thee.

Verse: Let Thine ears be attentive * to the voice of my supplication.

Repeat: O Lord, the Cherubim were amazed at Thine Ascension ...,

Verse: If Thou shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, O Lord, who shall stand? * For with Thee there is forgiveness.

Having beheld Thine ascents on the holy mountains, O Christ, * Thou effulgence of the Father’s glory, * we praise the radiant likeness of thy countenance. * We worship Thy passion, * we honor Thy Resurrection, * and we glorify Thy glorious Ascension. ** Have mercy on us.

Verse: For Thy name’s sake have I patiently waited for Thee, O Lord; my soul hath patiently waited for Thy word, * my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

Repeat: Having beheld Thine ascents on the holy mountains ...,

Verse: From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch * let Israel hope in the Lord.

O Lord, as the Apostles saw Thee being lifted up in the clouds, * O life-giving Christ, * they were filled with sorrow and wept with lamentation, saying with grief: * O Master, leave not as orphans * us Thy servants whom Thou didst love in Thy mercy, * since Thou art compassionate. * But as Thou didst promise, * send us Thy most holy Spirit, ** to illumine our souls.

Verse: For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption; * and He shall redeem Israel out of all his iniquities.

Repeat: O Lord, as the Apostles saw Thee being lifted up ...,

Verse: O praise the Lord, all ye nations; * praise Him, all ye peoples.

O Lord, when Thou didst fulfill the mystery of Thy dispensation, * Thou didst take Thy disciples and ascend the Mount of Olives; * and behold, Thou didst pass through the firmament of heaven. * O Thou Who for my sake didst become poor like unto me, * and Who didst ascend thither * whence Thou wast not separated, ** send forth Thy most holy Spirit to enlighten our souls.

Verse: For He hath made His mercy to prevail over us, * and the truth of the Lord abideth forever.

Repeat: O Lord, when Thou didst fulfill the mystery ...,

Glory ..., Now & ever ..., in Tone VI:

Not being separated from the bosom of the Father, * O most sweet Jesus, * and having lived on earth as a man, * Thou wast taken up in glory today from the Mount of Olives. * And having raised our fallen nature by Thy compassion, * Thou didst seat it together with the Father. * Wherefore, the heavenly orders of the bodiless ones were amazed at the wonder * and stood in awe and astonishment. * They were seized with trembling and magnified Thy love for mankind. * With them we on earth also glorify Thy condescension toward us, * and Thine Ascension from us, * entreating and saying: * O Thou Who by Thine Ascension didst fill with infinite joy * Thy disciples and the Theotokos who gave birth to Thee, * by their prayers count us also worthy of the joy of Thy chosen ones, ** for the sake of Thy great mercy.

After the Entrance and “O Joyous Light ...,”

Wednesday Vespers Prokeimenon:

The Prokeimenon in the 5th Tone. O God, in Thy name save me, * and in Thy strength do Thou judge me.

Verse: O God, hearken unto my prayer, give ear unto the words of my mouth.

Then the Three Scriptural Lessons:

THE READING IS FROM THE PROPHECY OF ISAIAH

Thus saith the Lord: In the last days the mountain of the LORD shall be manifest, and the house of God shall be on the summits of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall come to it. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us ascend to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths.

THE READING IS FROM THE PROPHECY OF ISAIAH

Thus saith the Lord: Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people. Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, a city not forsaken. Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me. I remembered the mercy of the LORD, I shall recall the virtues of the Lord, the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercy, and according to the abundance of his righteousness. And He said, Are ye not my people? They are My children, and they shall not set Me at naught. And He became for them salvation out of all their affliction. Not an ambassador, nor an Angel, but the Lord Himself saved them, because He loved them and spared them; He Himself redeemed them and took them up, and lifted them up for all the says of eternity.

THE READING IS FROM THE PROPHECY OF ZACHARIAH

Thus saith the Lord: Behold the day of the Lord cometh, and His feet shall stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which lieth opposite Jerusalem on the side whence is the dawning of the sun. And in that day living water shall come forth out of Jerusalem; half of it toward the former sea; and half toward the latter sea; and so it shall be in summer and spring. And the Lord shall be king over all the earth; in that day there shall be one Lord, and His Name one, compassing all the earth, and the wilderness from Geba unto Rimmon, the south of Jerusalem. And He shall be exalted and shall remain in that place, from the gate of Benjamin to the place of the first gate, to the gate of Gomor, and to the tower of Hananeel, and to the gate of the corners, as far as the king's winepress. They shall dwell therein; and there shall be no more any thing accursed, and Jerusalem shall dwell securely.

At Litiya, in Tone I:

As Thou didst ascend into the Heavens, * from whence Thou didst also descend, * leave us not orphaned, O Lord; * let Thy Spirit come, bringing peace unto the world; * show Thou unto the sons of men the works of Thy might, ** O Lord and Lover of mankind.

Though Thou wast not parted from His uncircumscribable bosom, * Thou didst ascend unto Thy beginningless Father, O Christ, * and the hosts on high accepted no addition to the thrice-holy praise. * But even after Thou didst become man * they recognized Thee as the one Son, * only-begotten of the Father, O Lord. ** In the multitude of Thy compassions, have mercy on us.

Thine Angels said unto the Apostles, O Lord: * Ye men of Galilee, * why stand ye looking up into heaven? * This is Christ God, Who hath been taken up from you into Heaven. * He shall come again in the manner ye have seen Him going into Heaven. ** Worship Him in holiness and righteousness.

Tone IV: When Thou, O Christ, * didst come unto the Mount of Olives * to accomplish the good will of the Father, * the heavenly angels were amazed * and the nethermost regions shuddered with fear. * The disciples stood by with joy and trembling * as Thou spakest unto them, * and a cloud prepared as a throne awaited opposite them; * and Heaven, throwing open the gates, shone with comeliness; * and the earth revealeth its hidden chambers, * that the descent and immediate ascent might be made known unto Adam; * but his steps were led upwards as it were by a hand, * and his mouth was heard blessing Thee greatly; * the cloud took Thee up and Heaven received Thee within itself. * Thou hast wrought this great and strange deed, O Lord, ** for the salvation of our souls.

Thou hast renewed in Thyself Adam's nature, * which had gone down into the lower parts of the earth, * and Thou didst raise it up above every principality and authority today. * For since Thou didst love it, Thou didst seat it together with Thyself; * since Thou hast taken compassion on it, Thou didst unite it to Thyself; * since Thou didst unite it to Thyself, Thou didst suffer with it; * and enduring the Passion, though Thou art impassable, * Thou didst glorify it. * But the Bodiless ones said: Who is this comely man? * But not only is He man, but God and man; * that which is manifest is twofold. * Wherefore, beside themselves, * the Angels, flying about clad in radiant vesture, * cried unto the disciples: Ye men of Galilee, * He that is gone from you, * Jesus, Man and God, * shall come again as the God-man to judge the living and the dead; * and He granteth unto the faithful ** the forgiveness of sins and great mercy.

When Thou didst ascend in glory, O Christ God, * while the disciples were watching, * the clouds took Thee up with Thy flesh; * the heavenly gates were lifted up; * the choir of the Angels rejoiced with rejoicing; * the powers above cried aloud, saying: * Lift up thy gates, O ye princes, * and the King of Glory shall enter therein. * And the disciples were astonished and said: * Be Thou not parted from us, O Good Shepherd, ** but send unto us Thy most holy Spirit to guide and establish our souls.

Glory ..., Now & ever ..., in Tone IV:

O Lord, having fulfilled the mystery * that was hidden from before the ages and from all generations, * as Thou art good Thou didst come with Thy disciples to the Mount of Olives, * having together with Thyself her that gave birth * unto Thee, the Creator and Fashioner of all things; * for it was meet that she * who, as Thy Mother, suffered at Thy Passion more than all, * should also enjoy the surpassing joy * of the glorification of Thy flesh, O Master, * which we have attained by Thine Ascension to the Heavens, ** and we glorify Thy great mercy toward us.

On the Aposticha, The Stichera of the Feast, in Tone II:

Thou wast born as Thou Thyself didst will; * Thou didst appear of Thine own choice; * Thou didst suffer in the flesh, O our God. * Thou didst arise from the dead, trampling down death; * and Thou didst ascend in glory, O Thou Who fillest all things, * and didst send unto us the Divine Spirit, ** that we may praise and glorify Thy Divinity.

Verse: Clap your hands, all ye nations; * shout unto God with a voice of rejoicing.

Beholding Thee being taken up * from the Mount of Olives, O Christ, * the Powers cried one to another: Who is this? * And it was said unto them: * This is He that is strong and mighty. * This is He that is mighty in war. * This is truly the King of Glory. * And wherefore are His garments red? * Because He cometh from Bozrah, which is the flesh. * But Thou Thyself, being God, * didst sit at the right hand of majesty * and didst send unto us the Holy Spirit, ** that He may guide and save our souls.

Verse: God is gone up in jubilation, * the Lord with the voice of the trumpet.

Thou wast taken up in glory from the Mount of Olives, O Christ God, * in the presence of Thy disciples, * and didst sit down at the right hand of the Father, * O Thou Who dost fill all things with Thy Divinity; * and Thou didst send unto them the Holy Spirit, * Who doth illumine ** and strengthen and sanctify our souls.

Glory ..., Now & ever ..., in Tone VI:

God is gone up in jubilation, * the Lord with the voice of the trumpet, * to raise the fallen image of Adam, ** and to send the Comforting Spirit to sanctify our souls.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK: (19:9-20)

At that time: Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils. And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not. After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country. And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them. Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

Then, in Tone VI:

Having beheld the Resurrection of Christ, * let us worship the holy Lord Jesus, * the only sinless One. * We venerate Thy Cross, O Christ, * and Thy holy Resurrection we hymn and glorify. * For Thou art our God, * and we know none other beside Thee; * we call upon Thy name. * O come, all ye faithful, * let us worship Christ's holy Resurrection, * for, behold, through the Cross joy hath come to all the world. * Ever blessing the Lord, * we hymn His Resurrection; * for, having endured crucifixion, ** He hath destroyed death by death. (Once)

As the hosts of Heaven saw Thee, our Savior, being taken up into the heights together with Thy body, they cried out, saying: Great is Thy love for mankind, O Master.

Refrain: O Most Holy Theotokos, save us.

Theotokion: O Thou bush un-burnt, and mountain and living ladder, and gate of Heaven, we glorify thee as is meet, O glorious Mary, thou boast of the Orthodox.

The second Canon, in Tone IV:

Irmos: Celebrating the divine and solemn feast * of the Mother of God * O ye divinely wise, * let us come, clapping our hands, * and glorify God who was born of her.

Refrain: Glory to Thee, our God, glory to Thee.

Let the clouds sprinkle upon us eternal joy from above; for riding upon a cloud as upon the Cherubim, Christ is gone up unto His Father today.

Refrain: Glory to Thee, our God, glory to Thee.

Having appeared in the likeness of the flesh, Thou didst gather together into one the things that were formerly separated, O Lover of mankind. And while the disciples were watching, O Compassionate One, Thou wast taken up unto the Heavens.

Glory ... Why are His garments red Who is united to the grossness of the flesh? The holy Angels, on seeing Christ, extolled Him Who bare the divine symbols of the venerable Passion.

Now & ever ..., We praise thy conception, O Maiden; we praise thine ineffable birthgiving, whereby we were delivered from the destruction and misfortune and gloomy confinement in Hades, O pure one.

Katavasia: Thou hast shone forth from the Virgin * as forgiveness and salvation for us, O Christ Master; * that, like as Jonah was rift from the belly of the sea monster, * Thou mightest snatch from corruption * all the fallen race of Adam.

Kontakion and Ikos of the Feast, in Tone VI:

When Thou didst fulfill Thy dispensation for our sake, * uniting things on earth with the heavens, * Thou didst ascend in glory, O Christ our God, * departing not hence, but remaining inseparable from us, * and crying unto them that love Thee: ** I am with you, and no one shall be against you.

Ikos: Leaving the things of earth upon the earth, and surrendering to the earth things of ashes, come, let us come to our senses and raise our eyes and thoughts on high; let us, O mortals, turn our gaze together with our senses up unto the heavenly gates. Let us consider ourselves present at the Mount of Olives, and gaze intently at the Redeemer who is riding upon a cloud; for the Lord hath hastened up from there into the Heavens. And there the bountiful Giver of gifts distributed gifts unto His Apostles, calling to them as a Father, and strengthening them; He guided them like Sons and said unto them: I am not separated from you; I am with you, and no one can be against you.

SYNAXARION

Verse: Thou didst sit at the right hand of the Father O Word

Verse: Granting unto thine initiates a most steadfast faith

When Christ was with the Disciples before His Passion, He promised them the coming of the all-holy Spirit, saying: "For if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you." And again: "When He is come, He will teach you all the truth." For this reason, after His Arising from the dead, being seen of them for forty days, not always eating and drinking with them, but at intervals, He gave them firmer proof of His Resurrection. Finally, after making many promises concerning the Kingdom of God, He commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but await there the coming of the all-holy Spirit, since they were to be baptized through Him. He commanded them to remain in Jerusalem, so that in that place the preaching of the Gospel might be first confirmed, lest in going to foreign parts they should become easy prey for slander, and because it was necessary for them to be equipped, like soldiers, with the weapons of the Spirit, and go thus into battle against the enemies of Christ. When the time for the Ascension was at hand, He led them forth to the Mount of Olives (it is called by this name, because it was planted with a great many olive trees), and conversed with them about His proclamation to the ends of the earth, and also about His perpetual Kingdom to come. When He saw that they were going to ask Him what they should do, and since His immaculate Mother was also present there, He drew their attention to the Angels, who indicated His ascent to Heaven. And while they beheld, He was taken up from their midst, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. Being thus escorted by the Angels, who exhorted each other to lift up the heavenly gates and were astonished that His flesh was reddened with blood, He ascended and sat at the right hand of the Father, deifying the flesh, and—I make bold to say—putting it on a level with God. For through the flesh we were reconciled to God and the ancient enmity was destroyed. The Angels stood before the Apostles in the form of men, saying: “Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye in amazement, gazing up into Heaven? This Jesus, Whom ye saw as God in the flesh, will come again thus, that is, in the flesh; save not as before, in poverty and gentleness, but with great glory, as ye behold Him now escorted by Angels.” Then the Apostles, wearied by their gazing, returned from the Mount of Olives. This is very close to Jerusalem, by a distance of two thousand and forty paces. This is the Way of the Sabbath. Thus was it enjoined on Moses to walk so many paces on the Sabbath, because this was the distance from the Tabernacle of witness to the camp of the Jews. It was permitted for worshippers to go out there on the Sabbath, but not to extend their journey any further. For this reason it was called the Way of the Sabbath. Hence, it seems to some that the Ascension of Christ took place on the Sabbath, but this is rather improbable. When they returned, the Apostles went up to the upper room, in which they remained, together with the Myrrh-Bearing Women and the Mother of the Word, occupying themselves in fasting, prayer, and supplications and awaiting the advent of the all-holy Spirit, according to the promise.

O Christ our God, Who didst ascend in glory, have mercy on us. Amen

Now & ever ..., O Strange wonders! How didst thou, O divinely joyous One, contain the uncontainable God, Who hath become poor according to the flesh, and was taken up with great glory unto the Heavens today, quickening man?

Katavasia: The harmonious music of the flutes sounded forth * to honor the lifeless idol made of gold; * but the light bearing grace of the Comforter * doth inspire to cry out in reverence: * Trinity in Unity, * equal in might and beginningless, * Blessed art Thou!

Refrain: Glory to Thee, our God, glory to Thee.

Refrain: Glory to Thee, our God, glory to Thee.

Let us render majesty unto God, let us cry out with one accord in jubilation of praise, let us sing, dance, and clap our hands. Our God is gone up from earth into the Heavens, as the Angels and Archangels praise Him as the Master and Creator of all things.

THE ACTS OF THE HOLY APOSTLES: (1:1-12)

The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen: To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

Alleluia in Tone II:

Verse: God is gone up in jubilation, the Lord with the voice of the trumpet.

Verse: Clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with a voice of rejoicing.

GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE (24:36-53)

At that time, Jesus having arisen from the dead, stood in the midst of His disciples and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet. And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat? And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he took it, and did eat before them. And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things. And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high. And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

Instead of “It is truly meet...” we chant the Irmos of the 9th ODE of the First Canon of the feast, in Tone V:

Refrain: Magnify, O my soul, * Christ the giver of life, ** Who ascended from earth to Heaven.

Irmos: O Thou who art God’s Mother transcending mind and word, * who ineffably in time * hast given birth unto the Timeless One, * Thee do we the faithful magnify with one accord.

Communion Verse: God is gone up in jubilation, the Lord with the voice of the trumpet. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

In some Liturgical traditions, the Troparion of the Feast is chanted in place of “We have seen the true light ...”;
